OFFICIAL PRODUCT VERIFICATION NOTICE

CONFIRMATION OF THE TWO OFFICIAL HEPU®
COOLANT BOTTLE VERSIONS

OFFICIAL PRODUCT VERIFICATION NOTICE

Confirmation of the Two Official HEPU® Coolant Bottle Versions

HEPU® officially confirms that our coolant is distributed in two approved and authentic bottle versions. Both versions are manufactured exclusively by HEPU®. The following visual guide highlights the key identification features of both official bottles to help you distinguish genuine HEPU® products from potential counterfeit items.

1. Bottle Cap Design

Both cap designs are official and belong to authentic HEPU® bottles.

2. Bottle Neck

Both cap designs are official and belong to authentic HEPU® bottles.

Version A: Textured bottle surface, logo embossed outward

Version B: Smooth bottle surface, logo embossed outward

3. Bottle Height

Both bottle versions have a different height.

Version A: 27.1 cm

Version B: 26.8 cm

3. Label Type (Printed vs. Sticker)

Version A uses a high-quality adhesive label.

Version B features a directly printed label on the bottle surface.

5. MAXXUS Logo Color Variation

The MAXXUS logo appears with white or yellow design elements depending on the bottle version. Both variations are official and correct.

6. Fill Level Indicator

The embossed numbers on the fill level indicator differ by version.

Version A: Numbers embossed outward

Version B: Numbers embossed inward

7. Batch Code Position

The batch code location differs between the two official bottle versions.

Version A: Positioned on the upper neck area

Version B: Positioned near the bottom

Both positions are valid and authentic.

8. Bottle Bottom Design

The bottle bottom structure can vary between Version A and Version B.

9. Mixing Ratio Table

The mixing ratio table layout differs slightly depending on the bottle version.

10. German Flag (Logo)

The German flag element beneath the HEPU® logo differs between the two official bottle versions.

Version A: The flag has no outer black border.

Version B: The flag features an additional outer black border.

All bottle variations shown in this document are officially authorized HEPU® coolant bottles. Any bottle design not matching Version A or Version B may indicate a counterfeit product. For verification or questions, please contact us directly.

We strongly recommend that customers purchase HEPU products exclusively from authorized and official distributors to ensure product authenticity and quality.
